CHAMPAGNE

This section is much more than just about image – although it is hard to dissociate that factor completely from “Brand Champagne”. An outstanding and amazingly broad selection which balances top Grandes Marques, with famous Cuvée de Prestige and high quality independent grower Champagnes. Wonderful range of styles from the feather light Blanc de Blancs (made from 100% Chardonnay) to rich and powerful black grape (Pinot Noir) blends and top vintage years – and of course Rosé! Something for everyone depending on your style preference and budget.

BORDEAUX

A large and diverse region with a big reputation, especially amongst the Bordeauxlais! We would like to draw your attention to both the depth and breadth of our range, in particular the easy access to older and more mature (and therefore highly drinkable) vintages. With top estates and vintages escalating towards some eye watering prices, we strive constantly to source top examples at fair prices and with good drinking windows. Do ask us about the Second Wine offerings we have from top Cru Classé estates, which provide immense enjoyment at an earlier date. We have superb examples from all the classic regions within Bordeaux. Equally we work hard on the good value range – both red and white – which provide more low key, but still classical, examples of this great region.

And finally don't forget the great sweet dessert wines from Barsac and Sauternes - truly luxurious and hedonistic.

BURGUNDY

The great qualitative rival to Bordeaux in France and a beautifully unspoilt region. We believe that as a region Burgundy requires greater levels of investigation, research and expertise than any other in France. Over the last few years we have done considerable work on this section to produce a range of wines which reflect the diversity of vintages and villages – from Chablis to Beaujolais – as well as a plethora of the very top producers. In Burgundy the key to good drinking is the producer above all, aligned to their localised area – or village(s) - of expertise, and this has formed the basis of our whole selection process. Some truly fabulous names and wines here – and superb quality across the whole price spectrum.

LOIRE

We are very proud of the depth and breadth of our portfolio, reflecting the length of France's longest river!

Dominated by exuberant and refreshing white wines with a venerable mix of classics from Sancerre, Pouilly, Vouvray et al, along with a liberal scattering of medium bodied reds and luscious sweet wines. Literally wines for all seasons here, but with a strong summer leaning.

FRENCH PROVINCIAL

A vast area producing the largest quantity of wine in France. The South is a wonderful area for high quality, value for money, quaffing wines. Our range is a heady mix of mainstream grapes and styles blended with some remarkably individual and high quality single estate wines.

ALSACE

Please, please do not forget the wonderfully bold fruity and aromatic wines from Alsace. This beautiful region in the North-East corner of France is the second warmest and driest in the country – bettered only by the Mediterranean South. This give wonderful ripeness and purity to the mainly white varietals which are grown here. Our selection includes all the great grape varieties and stellar producers such as the quaintly named Rolly Gassmann, Trimbach and Hugel. Do give these a try, you will be amazed

GERMANY

A quiet revolution has taken place in Germany and Austria over the last 30 years, home now to some of the purest and fruitiest wines on the planet and increasingly drier and more food friendly. We have worked diligently on this part of the portfolio and continue to champion the home of the finest and most delicate Riesling grape based wines - and, as ever, the main focus is on top producers aligned to fine vineyard sites. Also a source of high quality, refined dessert wines.

ITALY

A vinous wonderland to many, a bit of a jungle to others. Here at The Wright Wine Company, we have, with alacrity, put on our pith helmet and taken a machete to this task over the last few years! The result, we feel, is a highly representative and balanced portfolio covering all the classics (with many top names and producers) as well as a broad choice of highly individual and enjoyable wines from all four corners of the country. It is worth noting that in Italy many grapes and wines are totally individual to that area and this patchwork of styles needs serious research and "sieving" to extract all the gold dust which makes Italian wines so rewarding.

SPAIN

It is quite a task keeping up with developments in Spain, but as a specialist Iberian merchant we enjoy this constant challenge!

Our focus remains investigating the new and up and coming regions whilst ensuring all the traditional areas and producers are scrutinised. We are especially pleased by how broad our offering has become with the inclusion of new and exciting areas (such as the Txakolina grape from the Getaria region in the north) as well as a really deep portfolio of Rioja, Ribera del Duero and Priorat classics.

PORTUGAL

We are especially proud of our Portuguese portfolio – in fact we believe that it is as extensive and innovative as any in the UK. This great country has so much more to offer in its table wines than at any time in its history. Levels of investment and expertise are at an all time high and the quality and range of styles are enthralling. The vast majority of these are brilliant expressions from the wealth of indigenous grape varieties that they have to offer – second only, perhaps, to Italy in this regard.

LEBANON

We are delighted to offer such an extensive range from the Lebanon, in particular the library vintages of Chateau Musar.

Chateau Musar has always held a special place here at The Wright Wine Company. In fact, it was one of the first wines (the 1982 vintage) that owner, Julian Kaye, ever laid down. In true homage to the work of the late Chateau Musar owner,

Serge Hochar, and our great working relationship, we are delighted to offer this fantastic range of older vintages.

The 1999 has been compared by a few to the great 1959 vintage of Musar and, to be honest, there are not many places you will find a wine of this quality and vintage for less than £35 a bottle – we hope you enjoy.

SOUTH AFRICA

Of all the New World countries South Africa has been making wine the longest - as far back as the 17th Century when the revered sweet Vin de Constance became legendary. Emerging out of its period of (apartheid) isolation South Africa has made incredible strides in the last 25 years and now challenges all comers. There is a fine mix here with highlights including fruity and aromatic, cooler climate Sauvignon Blancs and balanced red Bordeaux blends. The country also remains loyal to its favourite dry white wine from Chenin Blanc and its home grown red variety Pinotage – a true love: hate wine!

In summary a country where the cliché “watch this space” accurately applies.

ARGENTINA

Hot on the heels of Chile - certainly for reds - and sponsors of the historic Malbec grape, just when Bordeaux gave up on it in their blends, this country remains on the up. Likewise, they have developed a real niche with the perfumed and very fruity white grape, Torrontés, by exploiting the ultra high altitude Andes vineyards in the Northern area of Cafayate in the Salta province. In the meantime, the Mendoza region has established itself as one of the great vinous land masses and spiritual home for their juicy Malbecs.

CHILE

A good number of new regions and increasingly subtle styles – especially with cooler climate aromatic whites (Sauvignon Blanc, Riesling, even Gewürztraminer) from areas such as Casablanca, San Antonio and Leyda Valleys, as well as Limari and Bio Bio. But Chile still remains a red dominated producer and Bordeaux styled wines its favourite model, as ever in areas such as the Maipo and Rapel. But don't forget their star "home" grape Carmenère – one of the world's more interesting styles and one of the best red wines to go with a curry! In general a country who continues to evolve and prosper.

It's so easy to think of this country and substitute the word "California". As important as this vast region is, fine wines are also made in the states of Oregon (especially Pinot Noir) and Washington State (Chardonnays and Bordeaux blends).

California continues to dominate with a broad section of white and red wines which are still very much based on French classics. Highlights include Burgundian styled Chardonnays and Pinot Noirs and Bordeaux based Cabernet Sauvignon and Merlot reds. They are also working hard on Rhône style reds.

Finally, there are also some sumptuous sparkling wines - and don't forget their juicy, home grown red Zinfandels.

NEW ZEALAND

A remote and captivating country, and probably the greenest of all in the 'New World', it is now a world standard bearer for bold fruity and aromatic Sauvignon Blancs from Marlborough. In the last ten years they have, quite rightly, developed a high reputation for some of the finest and more subtle Pinot Noirs in the New World, especially from the North Island Martinborough and the South Island Central Otago regions, as well as Marlborough again. Watch out for up and coming aromatic varietals such as Pinot Gris, Riesling and Gewürztraminer. Quality is remarkably high and consistent in this country.

AUSTRALIA

So much improvement and balance in their top Chardonnays these days, above all from more sensitive winemaking allied to grapes sourced from cooler areas such as Adelaide Hills. Their Shiraz, at the highest level, are simply world class – and no longer just from the Barossa, but areas such as Heathcote, McLaren Vale and Margaret River. And they continue with their own special take on Châteauneuf-du-Pape - lovingly referred to as “SGMs”. The most interesting twist has been in the progress made and positive championing of the Riesling grape – especially in the Clare Valley, which are now New World standard bearers. In essence a New World stalwart as a country.

ROSÉ

Because our Rosé wines are somewhat fragmented in the list, it is easy to pass them by. Rosés have never been better made, nor is the diversity of style more broad. We believe this is reflected in our selection with particular strengths and recommendations from the South of France, Loire, Iberia and Australasia.
